

DANIEL GUAIDA AZAR

Partner

dguaida@gcsc.com.mx

gcsc.com.mx

About

He has over 13 years of professional experience and has focused his practice in domestic and cross border project finance, M&A transactions, as well as structuring publicly traded private equity funds, representing clients from a wide range of industries.

In the finance field he has developed expertise in the Financial Technology sphere and regulation thereof, advising among others, startups venturing in newly authorized banking and financial activities in Mexico and in the regulatory authorizations to operate as Financial Technology Institution.

His experience also includes advising technology startups in the initial structuring, funding at different stages and buyouts.

Experience

- International associate, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, New York, United States (2016)

Areas of Practice

Private Equity and Fund Formation

Corporate Finance

Mergers and Acquisitions

Infrastructure and Project Finance

Banking and Finance Regulation

Capital and Debt Markets - Security

Education

Master of Laws (LL.M.), Instituto Superior de Derecho y Economía, Madrid, Spain

Law degree (J.D. equivalent), Universidad Iberoamericana, Mexico City, Mexico

Academia

He contributes as a Fintech mentor in NeedEd Education online education platform.

Publications & Collaborations

He has been invited to participate as speaker in conferences related to Fintech Law, including one organized by the Spanish Chamber of Commerce in Mexico

Languages

Spanish – English